

EMPLOYEE OF THE YEAR - 2001

Danette Hebert was awarded the City of Thibodaux Employee of the Year award for 2001 at the annual Employee of the Year Christmas celebration held on Saturday, December 15 at Peltier Park. Each year all of the City's employees and directors have the opportunity to nominate an outstanding employee and submit a detailed reason why the chosen employee deserves the award. A committee specially formed for the event then carefully reviews the "nominations".

This year's award went to a very devoted and hard working woman. Peggy Mokhtarnejad, from the Finance Department in City Hall, sent in a nomination for Danette Hebert, Deputy Tax Collector. The nomination included a summary of why Peggy felt Danette would be deserving of the award. Peggy stated, "Dedicated and hardworking, Danette handles customers with diplomacy and tact." Mayor Caillouet was very proud and honored to present the "2001 Employee of the Year" award to Danette. He commented, "Danette has shown great enthusiasm and dedication at City Hall. She is very pleasant and a kind person to work with and I definitely think she was very deserving of the award."
