"People First"

Senior Mayor for the Day Mrs. Eva Jacobs June 1, 2010

"Mayor" Jacobs was not born in Thibodaux, but has lived here for the past fifty-four years. She is a graduate of (then) Leland College, in Baker. She was married to the late Jake Jacobs for twenty-seven years and she was the mother of one son, now deceased.

"Mayor" Jacobs is a retired educator. She taught in the Lafourche Parish Public School System and at Nicholls State University for forty years. "Mayor" Jacobs attends University Baptist Church.

She is a major community contributor because over the years, "Mayor" Jacobs served on countless boards and committees. For thirteen years, she served on the Thibodaux Regional Medical Center Hospital Board. She also served on the Library Board, was Grand Marshal of the Krewe of Shaka, and volunteered at the hospital.

When asked what she thought about her day at City Hall, "Mayor" Jacobs said, "I wish more people could have this experience. I am so very impressed." It is YOU who impressed US!

Thank You, "Mayor" Jacobs. You served the City well!
