Message from the Mayor

“As we reflect on the successful return of Mardi Gras to the Bayou Region we can also reflect on back to back conference titles for the Nicholls Men’s Basketball program.

Most of the time we get a little complacent about everything that happens here in Thibodaux; we take many things for granted. We just assume that these things will happen each and every day just because that is what we are used to. “

CITY OF THIBODAUX

EMPLOYEE SPOTLIGHT

Olivia Landry

Public Works Department Executive Secretary

A native of Thibodaux, Olivia, who also goes by Livvie, enjoys spending time with her son, Gavyn, family, friends, and 3 dogs when she isn't at work. Livvie has worked for the City of Thibodaux for 9 years.

On a typical work day, Livvie's job consists of helping customers with permits, streets & drainage issues, garbage pickups, street light outage, and water & gas issues. Livvie is in the process of transitioning from the Permits Department to Executive Secretary for Public Works.

When asked to comment on the most rewarding part of her job while working for the City of Thibodaux, Livvie said, "It is rewarding to be able to assist the residents of Thibodaux and receiving phone calls from residents thanking us for a job well done makes it worthwhile."

While working for the City of Thibodaux, Livvie's proudest moment has been "learning all the tasks of her new position as Public Works' Executive Secretary and what it all entails."

Livvie noted her biggest achievements to date as a personal ones by saying, "My biggest achievement is raising my son as a single mother and being able to purchase a home for the both of us."
